Pinkerton Academy Hall of Fame
Nomination Form - Deadline: April 15, 2018

The Pinkerton Academy Hall of Fame seeks to honor outstanding individuals who are or were associated with the Academy and have made exceptional contributions. Selections will be based on the following criteria:

- Recognition by his/her peers for a high level of achievement in his/her field, making significant contributions to that field at the state, national or international levels
- Is a role model of Pinkerton's core values: Courtesy, Respect, and Responsibility
- Demonstrated leadership, character, and service and has shared his/her expertise and initiatives in the community, state, or national level

Past recipients include: Headmasters, Honored Military, Athletic Stand-outs, Business Owners, Trustees, Scholars, Olympians, Outstanding Educators and Coaches, Long-time Pinkerton supporters, and Community Leaders.

Please note: Choosing the nominees is a subjective process. Some candidates are chosen based on their involvement and success while at Pinkerton; some are chosen for what they accomplished after graduation. There are a select few that excelled in both arenas. Please attach a photo of the nominee (yearbook photo is acceptable). In the space provided below, please complete the required contact information and write a statement of explanation for this nomination. Be as specific in the statement as possible. The more details you provide, the better our selection committee can appreciate the candidacy.

All nominations must be received no later than April 15, 2018. Please send them to the attention of the Hall of Fame Committee at the school's address below. Questions should be directed to the Anne Parker at the Alumni Center at (603) 437-5217. All 2018 inductees will be announced at the June graduation, and a formal induction ceremony will take place at the Hall of Fame Banquet held during Homecoming weekend.
